

Wastewater Depot Services

Do you need tankage fabrication? We can help!

Wastewater Depot, LLC

Typical Tank Stiffening

Aluminum Handrails and Grating Available

Large Tankage

MIG, TIG, SAW Weding

---

About Us

Wastewater Depot, a Woman Owned Company, has been providing wastewater treatment, parts, tankage and services to the wastewater industry for over 20 years. Amy Tipton knows wastewater treatment processes and can provide this service to your company for unique designs for any systems. Her expertise is in providing parts for your systems.

---

Fabrication Facilities

These fabrication facilities include designated areas for forming, burning, press operation, machining, CNC lathe, welding using MIG/TIG/SAW blasting and painting of the steel tankage

This brochure shows a collage of photographs of different types of fabrication services that can be provided to you company. Wastewater Depot, LLC has full fabrication services for your company, specializing in carbon steel plate and structural tankage fabrication for the wastewater treatment industry. Our fabrication shops have been designed to handle steel fabrication tankage of the height and length needed for this industry.

Mechanical Clarifier Fabrication

Typical Sludge Thickener Design

Flow Proportioning Equipment

Quality welding by certified welders

---

Wastewater Depot, LLC
4446 State Route 132
Batavia, OH 45103
Phone: 513-732-0129
Cell: 513-227-4540
Email: amy@wastewaterdepot.com

---

WWD proven tank fabrication is second to none in delivering the highest quality products on time without delay. Fabrication tankage includes systems such as aerobic digesters, anaerobic digesters, MBR, SBR, sludge holding tanks, steel lift stations and clarifiers of all types. If your company needs help in building your tankage, we are here to provide that service.

